

Richard-Wagner-Verband International e.V.

Keynote Wagner - Richard Wagner and Iceland

The Nordic sources and their impact on Wagner. From 1 - 6 June 2022 in Iceland

The Programme of the R. W. Society, Iceland, RWV International, Ars Musica and Reykjavik Festival, in connection with the Barbara Hannigan concert in Harpa 4.6. 2022 (www.barbarahannigan.com)

Thursday 2. June, 20.00 in Nordurljós, Harpa

Wagner concert: Reykjavík Chamber Orchestra, Hanna Dora Sturludottir, M.Trumpp
Wesendoncklieder, Siegfried Idyll and Paraphrases from Tristan und Isolde, with Liebestod.

Saturday 4. June in Veröld, House of Vigdis, University of Iceland:

Symposium: Richard Wagner and Iceland

9.00– 11.30 in German/13-15.30 in English language

1.The Ring back to its Roots

Wolfgang Wagner and the Shortened Version of the Ring in Reykjavik 1994.

Lecture: Selma Gudmundsdottir Pianist, President of RW Society, Iceland (Also in German)

2. Iceland and The Ring. Icelandic Sources of the Ring, the Eddas and the Sagas.

Lecture: Dr. Arni Björnsson, author of Wagner and the Völsungs (Also in German)

3.Wagner's Poetic Language and the Old Icelandic Sources

Lecture: Prof. Dr.Thorhallur Eythorsson (Also in German)

4.Was ist aus den Göttern der isländischen Mythologie in Richard Wagners Ring des Nibelungen geworden? Vortrag: Prof.Dr. Danielle Buschinger (Only in German).

5. A Short Introduction to Icelandic Music History

Lecture: Dr. Arni Heimir Ingólfsson (Only in English)

Saturday 4. June 17:00, Harpa

Barbara Hannigan conducts and sings with Iceland Symphony Orchestra

Charles Ives The Unanswered Question, Arnold Schönberg Verklärte Nacht, Alban

Berg Suite from Lulu, George Gershwin Girl Crazy, suite (arr. Bill Elliott)

Sunday 5. June at 17.00, Salurinn

Piano Recital Albert Mamriev: Wagner and Beethoven

On the programme of the former Bayreuth scholar and virtuoso from Hannover: Beethoven Sonatas and Wagner-Liszt: Transcriptions from Wagner's Operas. www.albertmamriev.org

Excursions from 2.-6. June, organized by Icelandic travel agencies in cooperation with Ars Musica: udo.baer@arsmusica-online.de