

Wagner Society of New York

PRESENTS

The 42nd Annual

Lohengrin Seminar

A half-day exploration of Wagner's romantic opera based on the medieval legend of the swan knight.

Sunday, March 19, 2023

12:00 PM - 4:00 PM

at

PETER NORTON

SYMPHONY
SPACE LEONARD
NIMOY THALIA

2537 Broadway at 95th Street

PROGRAM

- 12:00 PM Welcome by Moderator Victoria Bond, PhD.
Victoria Bond, composer and conductor, will be moderator and interviewer for the Seminar.
- 12:05 - 12:55 Katherine Syer, PhD: "Wagner's Lohengrin: Blending Art and Life, On Stage and Off"
Interview with director François Girard
- 1:05 - 1:55 Met Cast Roundtable
With several of the principal singers in the new production of Lohengrin at the Metropolitan Opera.
- 2:05 - 3:00 Met Orchestra Members
A panel with Met musicians, including Thomas Lausmann, Director of Opera Administration at the Met.
- 3:10 - 4:00 Jeffrey Swann, PhD: "Good and Evil: The Musical Duality of Lohengrin"
Dr. Swann, internationally known concert pianist and lecturer, is a professor of piano at NYU Steinhardt. He will illustrate passages live at the piano while discussing the opera's musical complexities.

REGISTER HERE

or visit wagnersocietyny.org/events/lohengrin-seminar
or call (212) 864-5400

Admission

All in-person admission prices include a $5 Symphony Space Service Fee

General Admission: $85

WSNY Members: $60

Students: $10

VIP Patron (with reserved seating): $200

Livestream: $30