The Rijksmuseum

The iconic Rijksmuseum in the heart of Amsterdam is one of the things you need to see when you visit the Netherlands.

Rijksmuseum moves you through more than 8,000 works of Dutch art and history including masterpieces by Vermeer, Rembrandt, and Van Gogh.

Van Gogh Museum

Explore Vincent van Gogh's masterpieces in the museum's permanent exhibition. See his development as an artist in the museum galleries. Get to know his ideas and ambitions and step into Van Gogh's world.

Amsterdam Canal Cruise

No trip to Amsterdam is complete without an Amsterdam canal cruise. Get to know the beautiful Dutch capital on a charming canal boat.

Zaanse Schans

The Zaanse Schans is a residential area in which the 18th and 19th centuries are brought to life. Despite the fact that visitors from all over the world visit this neighbourhood every day, it is good to know that people still live here. Keep this in mind during your visit. Stroll past the bakery museum and enjoy the smell of fresh cookies, or take a look at the warehouse where clogs are made.

You should be sure not to miss the mills, museums, cheese factory and pewter foundry. The Zaanse Schans is a unique part of the Netherlands, full of monumental houses, mills, barns and workshops where people practise traditional crafts. A day out at the Zaanse Schans in North Holland is fun and educational.

Pumping Station Cruquius

Cruquius Museum tells about the age-old Dutch battle against the water. The reclamation of Haarlemmermeer by means of steam power marked the breakthrough of the Industrial Revolution in the Netherlands. The Cruquius houses the worlds' largest steam engine.
